

The Journal is published regularly by the North American Japanese Garden Association (NAJGA), P.O. Box 28438, Portland, OR 97228.

We welcome feedback from readers. You may send a letter to the address provided above or to this e-mail: info@najga.org.

The Journal is a benefit of NAJGA membership and is provided free of charge to duly registered members. For non-NAJGA members, the purchase price per issue is $18.95 for US residents (includes postage), and $23.95 for Canada and other international delivery. Members who wish to get additional copies may purchase a copy for $15.00 (US) and $20.00 (international).

To join NAJGA, visit www.najga.org or call 503-222-1194.

Editor

K.T. Cannon-Eger

Publication Supervisor

Grace Roxas-Morrissey

Graphic Design

Rachel Beckwith

Editorial Advisory Board

Kendall Brown, Ph.D.

Brian Pendleton, Ph.D.

Seiko Goto, Ph.D.

Benjamin Chu

Edzard Teubert

COVER: Garden volunteer at the Portland Japanese Garden.

RIGHT: Seattle Japanese Gardens.

Photos by K.T. Cannon-Eger

5 | New Pathways Toward a Healthier World
EDITOR'S MESSAGE

6 | Contributors

12 | Japanese Gardens in the Modern World
HOICHI KURISU

16 | Award-winning Kurisu Garden Promotes Healing, Economy
BETTY KOEHN

19 | The Special Relevance of Sukiya Architecture for North American Japanese Gardens
HIROO KURANO, AIA

25 | A Tour of Moss Gardens in Japan and North America
DALE SEIVERT

29 | Moss: Stories from the Edge of Nature
MARC PETER KEANE

30 | Managing Volunteer Resources for the Health and Well-Being of Interpretive Programs
MARY PLUNKETT

33 | Volunteerism at Nikka Yuko Japanese Garden
MICHELLE DAY

36 | Weekly Volunteer Effort Helps Maintain Kubota Garden
DAN BROOKS

38 | Garden as Window
DIANE DURSTON

43 | Garden of Unity and Meaningful Visitor Engagement at the Japanese Friendship Garden
JENNIFER MORENO

44 | Nitobe Memorial Garden - UBC Botanical Garden - Vancouver, BC, Canada
CHRISTOPHER BALE AND RYO SUGIYAMA

46 | By Flood, Pest or Wind: Disaster Preparedness and Response for Japanese Gardens
KIM ANDREWS

49 | Aesthetic Pruning as a Science
BEN CHU

50 | Tree and Garden Preparedness Through Phrenology and Pruning
EDZARD TEUBERT

51 | “Submerged by the nobler desire” : The Garden Club of America Tour to Japan, 1935
BRIAN PENDLETON, PH.D.

60 | Japanese Style Gardens - Brooklyn Botanic Garden Book Review
CHRISTIAN TAGSOLD

62 | Obituaries
Takeo Uesugi | Lew Watanabe

